8th Annual Eggstravaganza

The Town of Bernalillo Recreation Department and the First Assembly of God Church will host the 8th Annual Bernalillo Eggstravaganza on Saturday, April 7, 2007 at 10:00 a.m. at Rotary Park.

The Eggstravaganza is the largest egg hunt ever in the history of Bernalillo. 6,000 plastic eggs filled with candy and goodies will be hidden for the hunt throughout Rotary Park. Prizes, including bicycles, will be given to some of the lucky egg hunters.

Mayor Patricia A. Chávez invites all children between the ages of one and twelve to the free event and to share in the fun of the Easter egg hunt!

Rotary Park is located at 370 Rotary Park, Bernalillo, NM 87004. For information contact Jason Soto (505)238-0689.

Spring Cleaning

The Bernalillo Volunteer Fire Department wants to remind citizens of the Town of Bernalillo to obtain a burn permit before burning weeds and debris. Dry conditions continue and pre-planning the spring cleaning of your yard and burning of weeds will keep you and your neighbors safe.

Burn permits are $10.00 and you may pick up an application at Town Hall, 829 Camino Del Pueblo. For more information, call Brannon Porch at 505.991.1990.

New Turn Arrow

The Town of Bernalillo and the New Mexico Department of Transportation are working together to increase the safety of motorist and pedestrians alike. If you haven't noticed, there is new signalization at Avenida Bernalillo.

The light now includes a turn signal for those of you turning North or South on to Camino del Pueblo from either direction to provide increased safety at this intersection. It makes it easier and safer for your commute home and to work.

Mayor Patricia A. Chávez and the Town Council strive to make Bernalillo a safer community for all citizens.

Camp Coronado

Camp Coronado registration is currently underway for the 2007 summer program. Space is still available, but limited to the first 175 registrants.

Call today to have your children participate in this great summer program. You can register your child at the Town of Bernalillo Multipurpose Recreation Center, 370 Rotary Park, Bernalillo, NM 87004.

For fees and additional information contact Jason Soto 505.238.0689.

Community Clean Up

The Community Development Department is coordinating a Spring Cleanup. In the April 21, 2007 edition of our newsletter there will be information as to where the dumpsters will be placed for residents of the Town of Bernalillo to use free of charge to dump off their weeds and leaves. Call Maria Rinaldi for more information, 505.771.7133.

PMS – Family Health Center Has a New Home

Since 1993, Rio Rancho Family Health Center has been providing mental health and substance abuse treatment to adults, children and families in southern and northern Sandoval County. To keep up with the growing demand for services, Rio Rancho Family Health Center announces its move to a new, much larger facility on Monday, April 2, 2007. The health center is now located at 184 Unser Boulevard, Rio Rancho. The phone number remains the same—505.896-0928.

RRFHC is strongly committed to providing quality care and services. RRFHC is the only center that focuses on serving low to moderate income families who are uninsured, or under-insured. RRFHC is also the only provider in the area who not only accepts Medicare and Medicaid but also offers sliding fee scale services for those individuals whose income and dependents show they fall within the federal guidelines.

As part of its celebration, RRFHC will hold an Open House on Thursday, April 12, 2007, from 3:00—6:00 p.m. A special ribbon cutting ceremony will take place at 3:30 p.m. Members of the community are invited to attend.

Citizens Hotline

771-5888

The Concerned Citizens Hotline is in place so that residents and businesses can contribute to policing Bernalillo. Call in to report graffiti, crime tips, neighborhood loitering, gang and drug activity, and other suspect or disturbing activity.

The hotline is manned by the Bernalillo Police Department and all calls are investigated and action taken by the responsible department.

For emergency situations, call 911.
