7th ANNUAL BERNALILLO EGGSTRAVAGANZA

Bernalillo, NM. The Town of Bernalillo Recreation Department and the First Assembly of God Church present the 7th Annual Bernalillo Eggstravaganza on Saturday, April 15, 2006. The Eggstravaganza is the largest egg hunt ever in the history of Bernalillo. 6,000 plastic eggs filled with candy and goodies will be hidden through out Rotary Park. Prizes, including bicycles, will be given to some of the lucky egg hunters.

“Of the many events the Recreation Department does through out the year, this is the one that takes me feel most like a kid again”, said Recreation Director Jason Soto. “All of the work that my staff and I put into stuffing 6,000 eggs is rewarded by the excitement of watching a hundred children run around the park jumping up and down shouting when they find an egg.”

The Eggstravaganza is a free event and open to all children between the ages of one and twelve who share the thrill of a hunt!

Mayor Patricia A. Chávez states that the partnership between the Town of Bernalillo and the Assembly of God Church provide a tradition of celebrating and strengthening the bonds of community in the Town of Bernalillo and the surrounding area.
