The 2009 New Mexico Wine Festival at Bernalillo The 2009 New Mexico Wine Festival Competition Winners

Town of Bernalillo, NM (September 3, 2009) The 22nd annual New Mexico Wine Festival at Bernalillo is this coming Labor Day weekend, September 5-7th, 2009, from 12:00 noon to 7:00 pm daily.

Over the last twenty years, the New Mexico Wine Festival at Bernalillo has become the largest and best attended wine event in the state. This festival attracts the best wineries in New Mexico but one also has to consider other factors for its success; the venue, the 12 top-notch bands, the artisans, the food and the kid's entertainment area. The two final and unquestionable factors are the event host and the experience of its highly regarded organizers. This year's art piece, selected and featured in the official festival poster, is a watercolor by the highly regarded local artist Johnny Mullins.

Mayor Patricia A. Chávez commented; "Wine making is a tradition in Bernalillo going back to the 1800s and it is fitting and proper that Bernalillo hosts the state's premier wine festival. Our festival is filled with something for everyone: a showcase of the best New Mexico wineries, award winning artisans, and top musicians. Food vendors, face painting, and a kid's zone by 'A Ton of Fun' make it a fun-filled event for kids." Noted as a "Top 100 Event in North America" by American Bus Association, the festival is hosted by the Town of Bernalillo as an economic and tourism development project.

We highly recommend purchasing your tickets online through the Town of Bernalillo web site www.townofbernalillo.org to avoid the lines. The Rail Runner has two stations in Bernalillo; the US 550 station is within walking distance to the festival, but organizers also offer a free shuttle service. Check www.nmtrainrunner.com for arrival and departure schedules.

Adult admission is $10 (includes commemorative glass); youth admission (13-20 years) is $5; and children (12 and under) get in FREE! Anyone under the age of 21 must be accompanied by a legal adult guardian.
