

Wastewater Utility Worker

Town of Bernalillo

Recruitment Period: December 15,2020 – UNTIL FILLED

Location: Bernalillo, New Mexico

Job Status: Full-Time Permanent

Department: Public Works – Wastewater

Pay Rate: $11.50

Job Summary: Assists wastewater treatment plant personnel in operation and maintenance of the Town's municipal sanitary sewer lines and treatment plant facilities to improve efficiency and meet regulatory requirements by performing the following duties.

Nature of Work (Other duties may be assigned).

- Perform preventive maintenance for system components, department equipment, and department tools.
- Operate heavy equipment – backhoe, skid steere, loader, dump truck.
- Transport waste sludge from the Wastewater Treatment Plant to the landfill.
- Inspect and provide routine maintenance on all Wastewater Lift Stations throughout Town.
- Will be required to be available for after hour's standby duty.
- Perform grounds maintenance and janitorial duties in the Wastewater facilities, as needed.
- Collect samples, collect readings, record results, monitor and collect system data.
- In conjunction with other Wastewater staff, oversee and inspect new service connections.
- Assist with servicing collection system

Education and/or Experience

- High school diploma or general education degree (GED)
- Two (2) years related experience and/or training
- CDL Preferred

Conditions of Employment:

- Must possess and maintain a valid NM Driver License free of serious infractions.
- CDL required within 90 days of hire date

Working Conditions:

- Work is performed in an outside/inside setting.
- Extensive driving is standard
- Some heavy lifting should be expected