PRESS RELEASE: Town of Bernalillo's Response to Stay-At-Home Order of 11/13/2020

Bernalillo, NM – November 13, 2020

At the directive of Governor Lujan Grisham's Stay at Home Order of 11/13/2020, and the Mayor's concern for the health and safety of our employees, your families, and our public: Effective 11/16/2020, non-essential personnel will not be in the office in accordance with the Stay at Home Order. Essential personnel will continue to report to work to meet the needs of our community.

This situation is in effect until November 30, 2020. The Town will continue to follow the leadership of Governor Lujan Grisham.

At this time, Town Services will only be available by phone:

- Utility Billing / Water Billing Office: 505-771-7120 or 505-771-7122
- Municipal Court: 505-771-5893 or 505-771-7115
- Planning & Zoning Department: 505-771-5896
- Public Works Department: 505-404-2054

Services/Buildings that will be CLOSED during this time:

- Town Hall/MVD
- Martha Liebert Public Library
- Bernalillo Community Museum
- Bernalillo Police & Fire Departments (still operational, no public)

As stated in the Public Health Order and for the safety of our community, please do not travel out of state, do not gather in large groups, do not gather with people outside of your household, and continue to wear your masks and wash your hands. We will survive together!
